BOOKNOTES

Book Group

The Eugene Hotel book group members will meet in the lounge on Monday, August 29 at 2:30 p.m. to discuss No Ghosts in the Graveyard: The Lifetime Adventures of a Small-Town Oregon Boy by Bob Crites, who has already shared some of his story when he spoke at the Hotel months ago. His memoir details him walking alone at night, at age nine, selling newspapers on the streets of Eugene, Oregon. He was among the last of the American paperboys. In the early 1950s, Bob and his triplet siblings didn't know the word "homeless"; he thought they were living an adventure camping in the woods with their young mother.

As an adult setting out to make a difference in the world, Bob finds his passion: Helping others help themselves.

Follow the funny, sometimes sad, always interesting adventures of "The Incredible Crites" as he saves lives, almost gets killed, and makes a world of difference.

In September, the book group will discuss a great book to be announced.
