BOOKNOTES

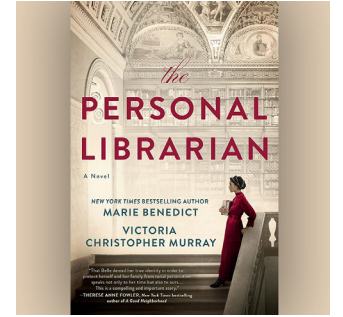

Book Group

The Eugene Hotel book group members will meet in the PDR on Monday, January 27th at 2:30 to discuss the Book The Personal Librarian, by Marie Benedict.

The Personal Librarian is an exciting historical fiction novel that dives into the extraordinary life of Belle da Costa Greene, the personal librarian to J.P. Morgan, during the early twentieth century. This gripping tale offers readers a captivating narrative and raises important questions about feminism, social justice, and the power dynamics that women, especially women of color, face in a male-dominated society.

The story follows Belle, a white-passing Black woman who hides her racial identity to navigate the prejudice of the early 1900s. As she climbs the ranks in Morgan's powerful circle, Belle becomes an indispensable figure in the world of art and literature, curating one of the most prestigious libraries of her time. However, as her career flourishes, Belle must constantly grapple with the limitations imposed on her as a Black woman, facing overt and subtle discrimination.
