BOOKNOTES

Book Group

The Eugene Hotel book group members will meet in the Lounge on December 26th at 2:30 to discuss the novel, Remarkably Bright Creatures, by Shelly Van Pelt.

This novel is a heartwarming debut novel about a grieving widow, Tova, who forms an unlikely friendship with an intelligent giant Pacific octopus named Marcellus at the aquarium where she works. Together, they unravel the mystery of her son's disappearance decades earlier, with Marcellus using his unique abilities to help Tova find closure and connection, alongside a young man named Cameron who is also searching for his place in the world. The book is praised for its charming characters, blend of mystery and emotion, and its exploration of loneliness, family, and hope.
